WHO WE ARE

The Society for Conservation Biology (SCB) Global is a non-profit, dedicated to facilitating, promoting, and advancing the scientific study and conservation of biological diversity. While our historical roots were founded in the field of biology, we recognize that conservation in today's complex world requires a globalized approach that maximizes collaboration amongst professionals from all fields. With more than 2,500 members worldwide, professionals, students, organizations, and supporters collaborate together in a way that transcends borders to advance the SCB vision and mission. The Society for Conservation Biology Oceania (SCBO) was formed in 2005 and operates as a regional, semi-autonomous section of the SCB with an elected independent board. Our region encompasses Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands (including Hawaii). SCBO is a not-for-profit company and registered charity in Australia.
