

SCB Transition Milestones 2021

January / February
2021

- SCB Transition Implementation Group meets for first time.
- SCB Global Services staff starts workshops to design new staff roles for the new global network structure.

July
2021

- SCB Board of Governors approves Vision 2026
- SCB Board of Governors approves proposed governance structure for new global network

August
2021

- SCB hosts townhalls with SCB Sections and Groups to receive feedback on the proposed governance model for the new global network

September
2021

- SCB Board of Governors approves new governance model for global network

October
2021

- Members of the Programs Council and Regional Council meet in their respective groups for the first time to begin the design work on their respective structures and internal governance.
- Interim Governance Committee members finalized as the IGC begins its work on designing bylaws for the new governance model.

November/ December
2021

- SCB Global Services staffing structure for 2022 approved by the Board of Governors
- SCB presents Vision 2026 and the approved governance model to members at the 2021 SCB members meeting

SCB Transition Milestones 2022

February 2022

- Membership Nimble Team begins a series of meetings to create recommendations to make the Society's membership model more inclusive and equitable
- The Africa, Europe, Latin American & Caribbean and North America Sections of SCB begin to design their governance structures for the new global network model

May 2022

- SCB Program Council Design Team starts to design its governance structure and formation
- Membership Nimble Team receives feedback from the Transition Implementation Group (TIG) on its work to create a more equitable membership model that includes a new non-dues paying membership category

July 2022

- SCB attends NACCB to provide an update to members on the transition to Vision 2026. It's the first of three Section congresses the Society would attend in 2022 to share updates and receive feedback from members on the transition.
- Interim Governance Committee updates the TIG and receives feedback on its work on bylaw changes that will enable SCB to enact Vision 2026

August 2022

- TIG recommends bylaw proposals be moved to the SCB Board of Governors (BoG) for approval
- TIG advances recommendations by the Membership Nimble Team to offer a free associate membership option and enable Sections to create additional, Section-specific benefits be advanced to the BoG for approval
- SCB attends ECCB to update Europe Section members on the transition and to work with the Section board on the design of its governance structure

August 2022 Continued...

- SCB BoG approves Membership Nimble Team proposal to create a membership model that includes a free associate member category in addition to a paid member option.
- BoG reviews recommendations on additions, changes and removals to SCB's bylaws in order to align SCB's Bylaws with the structural changes approved by the Global Network Board enable the Society to enact Vision 2026
- BoG begins process to share feedback on proposed changes to the bylaws.

October 2022

- Interim Governance Committee incorporates feedback from the BOG on the recommended bylaw changes

November/December 2022

- BoG approves proposed changes to SCB's bylaws be given to the SCB attorney to review and formalize
- SCB attends ESA-SCBO to provide transition updates and connect with the SCB Oceania board on their governance structure design work and progress
- SCB Sections present their designed governance structure to the BoG
- SCB Program Council Design Team presents on its progress and governance structure to the BoG