

Leslie Cornick

Dr. Cornick is the Science Officer for SCB's Marine Section, and has taught undergraduate and graduate courses in Human Impacts in Marine Systems and Marine Conservation for twenty years. She co-edited a special section on the impacts of climate change on access to subsistence marine resources in indigenous communities for Frontiers in Marine Science. She was a Senior Policy Fellow for the Marine Conservation Institute, served on the Science Council for MCI's GLORES project.